Dear colleagues,

The Department of Pathology, AIIMS Rajkot is organizing one day CME on "Recent Updates in WHO Classification of CNS Tumours." The WHO Classification of Tumours of the Central Nervous System (CNS), Fifth Edition, 2021, features significant updates that strengthen the role of molecular diagnostics in CNS tumour classification. The important changes in the 2021 fifth edition in each taxonomic category will be discussed. World Brain Tumor Day is observed on June 8 every year to spread awareness and educate people about brain tumors.
